In the Ribbons:

From Lynda Nelson:

A brag that my 8yo rescue Shih Tzu, Boston, got 2 legs in Rally Novice Obedience at the BKC trials on March 19 and 20. Scores 95 and 92, much better than I expected. Picture attached (from Dog Fest 2014, where I initially met him at the rescue booth in 2011.)

From Deb Hamele:

Dunn's Marsh Cinderella Story started her Barn Hunt career at NW Obedience Club's trial on 4/2/16 at 9 months of age with a pass of the instinct test (in 13 seconds) for her RATI then qualified in Novice. She then finished her Novice Barn Hunt title (RATN) on 4/9/16 at the Janesville-Beloit Kennel Club Barn Hunt with a first place, getting faster each time. I moved her up to Open the next day and she got her first leg with a second place.

Disturbing The Peace d'Assisi (Chaos) became the 5th French Bulldog in history to achieve the Open Barn Hunt title (RATO) at the Janesville-Beloit Kennel Club Barn Hunt on April 10th with a first place at each trial that day. Chaos is now starting his agility career and earned a first place in Novice FAST at the Medallion Rottweiler club trial 4/16/16.

Labrador Retrievers Summer, River and Marti all qualified in the senior class at the Happy Feet Barn Hunt on 4/22/16 taking first, second and third respectively in the class. Marti tried to deliver one of the rat tubes to hand. The dogs all love the Barn Hunt (finding the rats) game. If anyone ever wants to try their dogs at this fun sport I do offer training and practice times at my farm.

River and Summer continue to compete and excel in Masters agility as well with several Qs and placements this month including River earning a Double Q on 4/23/16 at the Forest City Trial and Summer qualifying in Masters standard that day.

From Judi Roller:

Chatham's Moon Shadow at Rivendell, WD, Manitowoc Kennel Club, 4/1/16; and Chatham's Moon Shadow at Rivendell, rough collie, WD/BOS over a special 4/23/16 at Fond du Lac under Judge Robert Frost.

From Denine Ackerbauer:

Ibsen du Mas d'Pataula won the Open Solo Wild Bird Field Trial in Armour, South Dakota on April 10 and is now a Champion of the Field.

From Lynn Montgomery:

Simon, my 11 month old St Poodle was used by Lis Johnson, a BKC member & master groomer, for grooming competition in March. She did pretty well that weekend. And I was very proud of how well Simon did standing on the table for over 2 hrs with all the distractions! PS - next shows in Ohio & Chicago this summer
